

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

February 1, 1898: Leila Denmark Born
 Vocabulary

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
Pediatrician	Noun	A doctor focusing on the treatment of children
Interned	Verb	to work as a trainee gaining practical experience, e.g. as a junior doctor in a hospital
Segregated	Adjective	The state of people being separated by race, ethnicity, gender, etc...
Wards	Noun	a room in a hospital, especially one for several patients being given similar treatment
Clinic	Noun	a medical center that specializes in a particular condition or area of medicine
Whooping Cough	Noun	an infectious bacterial disease that causes violent coughing spasms followed by sharp, shrill inhalations. It mainly affects children.
Pertussis	Noun	This is the technical name for whooping cough
Vaccine	Noun	a preparation containing weakened or dead microbes of the kind that cause a disease, administered to stimulate the immune system to produce antibodies against that disease
Distinguished	Adjective	well known and respected for an achievement, skill, knowledge, or talent