

 TODAY in GEORGIA
 HISTORY

April 22, 1872: Henrietta Dozier Born
Vocabulary

| Word | Part of Speech | Definition |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|--|
| Architecture | Noun | the art and science of designing and constructing buildings |
| Beaux-Arts Classicism | Noun | A style of architecture taught and produced out of the French Royale Academy of Architecture. More traditional and based on centuries of architecture in Europe. |
| Lobbied | Verb | to attempt to persuade a political representative or influential person to support or oppose a particular cause |
| Licensed | Noun | a printed document that gives official permission to a person or group to own something or do something |
| Federal Reserve | Noun | The Federal Reserve is the central bank of the United States with 12 area branches. |