

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

June 01, 1980: CNN Debut
Vocabulary

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
Revolutionized	Verb	to cause a radical change in something such as a method or approach
Network	Noun	a group of radio or television station affiliates with a core of programs that they all broadcast at the same time, with local or regional variations at other times
Redefined	Verb	to change the nature or scope of something, or cause something to be understood differently
Beaming	Verb	to send or transmit a program to a distant place in the form of a radio or television signal
Naysayers	Noun	Somebody who speaks against something, often refers to people who make a habit of giving negative opinions about ideas and projects
Shoestring Budget	Adjective	Running on a very small or limited amount of money
Fatal	Adjective	Leading to death, causing death
Appetite	Noun	A strong desire or craving for something
Credibility	Noun	The ability to create belief or trust