

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

June 18, 1927: George Heery Born
Vocabulary

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
Stint	Noun	a fixed period of time spent on a task or job
Pacific Theater	Noun	The Pacific Ocean theatre was one of four major naval areas of conflict during World War II
Architectural	Adjective	Something related to the art and science of designing and constructing buildings
Firm	Noun	a group of people who form a commercial organization selling goods or services
Collaborate	Verb	to work with another person or group in order to achieve something
Conservatory	Noun	a room with glass walls and roof where plants are grown or displayed, often built onto the side of a house
Botanical Gardens	Noun	an area, often open to the public, in which exotic, rare, or scientifically interesting plants are grown and studied
Secured	Verb	To make something certain to be achieved or gained.