

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

January 9, 1961: Desegregation of UGA
 Vocabulary

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
Flagship	Noun	The most important or prestigious among a group of similar and related things.
Admitted	Verb	To allow somebody or something entrance or access
Applied	Adjective	To make a formal, usually written, request for something. In this case to formally ask to attend a university
Dorms	Noun	A room within a building used as living and sleeping quarters for college students.
Semester	Noun	A period of time when students are in school. Generally there are two semesters in one academic year.
Sued	Verb	to take legal action against somebody to obtain something, usually money but in this case the ability to enroll at the University
Campaigned	Verb	to take part in a political campaign, usually involves stating your beliefs and goals and making promises to the voters
Segregationist	Noun	Someone who wants to keep the population separated in this case by color of skin.
Platform	Noun	the particular publicly announced policies and promises of a party or person seeking election,
Mob	Noun	A large and unruly crowd of people
Residence	Noun	A place where people live
Obscenities	Noun	Offensive words and phrases such as curse words or name calling

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

Dispersed	Verb	To cause something to scatter – in this case to cause a group of people to separate and go different ways
Reinstated	Verb	To give somebody their position back. This usually relates to a job, but in this case it relates to being reinstated as a student at a University
Distinguished	Adjective	well known and respected for an achievement, skill, knowledge, or talent
Regents	Noun	A university official, an officer of a university, especially a member of a governing board