

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

April 10, 1926: Junior Samples Born
 Vocabulary

| Word | Part of Speech | Definition   |
|-------------|-----------------------|---|
| Cue Cards   | Noun                  | in broadcasting, a large card containing the words that somebody is to say, held up out of sight of the viewing audience  |
| Hee Haw     | Noun                  | an American television variety show featuring country music and humor with fictional rural Kornfield Kounty as a backdrop.  |
| Carpentry   | Noun                  | the work or occupation of building and repairing things made of wood such as houses and boats, or the wooden parts of them  |
| Novelty     | Noun                  | something new, original, and different that is interesting or exciting, though often for only a short time  |
| Format      | Noun                  | the layout and presentation of something  |
| Hillbillies | Noun                  | a term used by people from the country to describe themselves with pride, but used by others as an insult for people whom they regard as ignorant and unsophisticated |
| Sketches    | Noun                  | a quick comic routine or piece of acting that is part of a variety show or comedy revue   |