

 TODAY in
GEORGIA
 HISTORY

April 23, 1897: Lucius D. Clay Born
Vocabulary

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
Architect	Noun	somebody who creates or invents something
Logistical	Adjective	involving the planning and management of how things are moved, especially military forces or industrial goods
Feats	Noun	a remarkable act or achievement involving courage, skill, or strength
Humane	Adjective	showing the better aspects of the human character, especially kindness and compassion
Procurement	Verb	Process dealing with a nation's investments in the technologies, programs, and product support necessary to achieve its national security strategy and support its armed forces.
Sector	Noun	a part of an area where military forces are operating or in control
Soviets	Noun	the government of the former Soviet Union, or the leaders of the former Communist bloc
Blockade	Verb	To create an organized action to prevent people or goods entering or leaving a place
Berlin Airlift	Noun	daily airlift which brought much needed food and supplies into the city of West Berlin
Interstate Highway System	Noun	a network of limited-access roads including freeways, highways, and expressways forming part of the National Highway System of the United States of America
Memorial	Noun	something that is intended to remind people of somebody who has died or an event in which people died, e.g. a statue, speech, or ceremony