

T O D A Y in
G E O R G I A
H I S T O R Y

June 07, 1935: Harry Crews Born
 Vocabulary

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
Hailed	Verb	to praise or approve a person, action, or accomplishment with enthusiasm
Bold	Adjective	willing and eager to face danger or adventure with a sense of confidence and fearlessness
Southern Gothic	Noun	is a subgenre of Gothic fiction unique to American literature that takes place exclusively in the American South. Common themes in Southern Gothic literature include deeply flawed characters, decayed or derelict settings, and other sinister events relating to or coming from poverty, racism, and violence. It is unlike its parent genre in that it uses these tools not solely for the sake of suspense, but to explore social issues and reveal the cultural character of the American South
Brutal	Adjective	Harsh, severe, ruthless, cruel
Psychological	Adjective	Relating to the human mind or the mental processes
Persona	Noun	Personality that somebody wants to show the outside world.
Acclaimed	Verb	To praise somebody or something publicly and enthusiastically
Memoir	Noun	a biography or an account of historical events, especially one written from personal knowledge
Rural	Adjective	Outside the city, county or country living, agricultural
Prolific	Adjective	Very productive, producing works in large amounts