

Today in Georgia History
September 18, 1895

Vocabulary List

Agitating
Exposition

Composed Promote

Controversial

Denounced

Glossary

Agitating: verb; to call attention to by speech or writing; to disturb or excite emotionally.

Composed: verb; to create, as in a musical, literary, or choreographic work.

Controversial: adjective; subject to debate, public dispute, or contention.

Denounced: verb; to condemn or censure openly or publicly.

Exposition: noun; a large-scale public show of art or manufactured products.

Promote: verb; to encourage the sales and acceptance of a product or products through advertising or other publicity; to help or encourage to exist or flourish.