

Today in Georgia History
November 11, 1908
Bobby Dodd

Vocabulary

Inducted	Tailback	Archrival	Philosophy
Creed	Sportsmanship	Unique

Glossary

Inducted: verb; formally give someone a position, to install somebody formally into a position or office.

Tailback: noun; offensive back, in football the offensive back positioned farthest behind the line of scrimmage

Archrival: noun; main rival, somebody's main or most dangerous rival

Philosophy: noun; guiding or underlying principles, a set of basic principles or concepts underlying a particular way of thinking.

Creed: noun; a set of beliefs or principals

Sportsmanship: behaving in a way considered fitting for a sportsperson, including following the rules of fair play, respecting others, and losing graciously

Unique: adjective; special, different from others in a way that makes somebody or something special and worthy of notes