

Today in Georgia History
November 29, 1991
Frank Yerby

Vocabulary

Unheard	Society	Alienation	Struck
Critics	Commercial	Racism	Imposed
Exile

Glossary

Unheard: adjective; shocking, never heard of before

Society: noun; a structured community of people bound together by similar traditions, institutions, or nationality

Alienation: verb; to cause somebody to change his or her previously friendly or supportive attitude and become unfriendly, unsympathetic, or hostile.

Struck: verb; to hit. In this case to hit a goal or achievement.

Critics: noun; somebody who judges or appraises somebody or something

Commercial: adjective; relating to commerce, relating to the buying and selling of goods or services

Racism: noun; prejudice or animosity against people who belong to other races

Imposed: verb; to lay down something compulsory such as a tax or a punishment

Exile: noun; not living in your own country. In this case by choice.